

Job Opportunity in Louisville, Ky.

RA Consultants is accepting applications for a Drinking Water Treatment or Distribution Plant Operator for a Water Line Construction Inspector. RA Consultants, LLC is a private consulting firm specializing in providing services to federal, state and local governments, as well as private companies. At a minimum, the applicant must possess a high school diploma or GED and a valid Kentucky driver's license. Required qualifications include, but are not limited to, possession of certification by the Kentucky Department for Environmental Protection as a water treatment or distribution plant operator (Class III-A, IV-A, III-D or IV-D) and five years' experience in underground pipeline water utility construction, GIS mapping and knowledge of MS Office.

A detailed job description can be found at the following link.

RA Consultant, LLC Position Announcement

Resumes can be submitted by visiting the RA Consultant, LLC website.